MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Project Director

SUBJECT: [] Manning

1. Since my last report on this subject, there has been considerable progress made in buttoning up clearances and procurement of personnel for our organization. It is my understanding that [] has furnished you an up-to-date status report on the military personnel. It is further my understanding that work is proceeding on procurement of senior civilians and the specific assignment of security force personnel.

2. Attached hereto is a set of organizational/functional charts for []. In the boxes appear the names of the individuals who, as of this date, are assigned to that position wherever this information is known. In cases where the individual is not currently on duty, the expected date of entry on duty is included also.

3. From the organizational charts, it is apparent that we have no knowledge of contractor personnel assigned to []. I desire to know those people with whom we are working overseas as early in the training program as possible. Therefore, it is requested that each of the contractors be urged to identify their personnel who will accompany [] to the foreign base.
